Restraining Orders

IF YOU ARE IN IMMEDIATE DANGER, CALL 911. You may apply for a restraining order if you have been threatened, harassed, abused or assaulted, whether or not you are married and whether or not you live with the person threatening or attacking you. You do not have to get a divorce to get a Restraining Order.

A restraining order can:

1. Order the attacker to stop physically or verbally abusing you or any other family member
2. Order the attacker to move out of the residence
3. Order the attacker to stay away from your home, school, work, and your child's school.

Information and an application for a Temporary Restraining Order are available at the Marin County Court Clerk's Office, Civic Center, Room 113. Call: 444-7040. An order can be signed the same day in Superior Court if it is submitted before 10:30 a.m., and be picked up after 2:00pm. When called to the scene of a domestic violence incident, the local police or sheriff can issue an Emergency Protective Order good for 5-7 days. For additional information, call Victim/Witness: 415-473-6450
